Invitation for Sponsorship

Dear Colleagues and Friends

The 2nd Asia-Oceanian Congress of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine (AOCPRM 2010) will be held in Taipei, Taiwan, April 29 to May 2, 2009 by Asian and Oceania Society of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine (AOSPRM). This meeting is endorsed by International Society of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine (ISPRM).

We will invite speakers with international reputation to cover main topics in physical and rehabilitation medicine, such as stroke, traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury, cerebral palsy, spasticity, motor control, low back pain, osteoporosis, myofascial pain, neuropathic pain, cardiopulmonary rehabilitation, burns, acupuncture, robotic training, orthotic device, amputation and prosthesis. An intensive range of topic has been lined up to enhance the practical value of the program. Five to ten workshops will be organized for different groups. Some featuring workshops will be highlighted such as hands on practice of ultrasonography examination for the musculoskeletal system, shockwave therapy, the fabrication of an ankle-foot-orthosis in twenty minutes and manipulation therapy. There will also be a trading exhibition displaying latest pharmaceutical products and equipment in the area of physical and rehabilitation medicine. We sincerely hope that physiatrists could apply these novel assessments and interventions into our daily practice and related researches after attending this meeting.

Enclosed please find a list of sponsorship options for your kind consideration. Your generosity will go a long way. Should you have any enquiries, please feel free to contact the Secretariat. We look forward to your favorable reply at the earliest.

Sincerely yours,

Simon FT Tang, MD

Chairman of the Organizing Committee
